Foreword

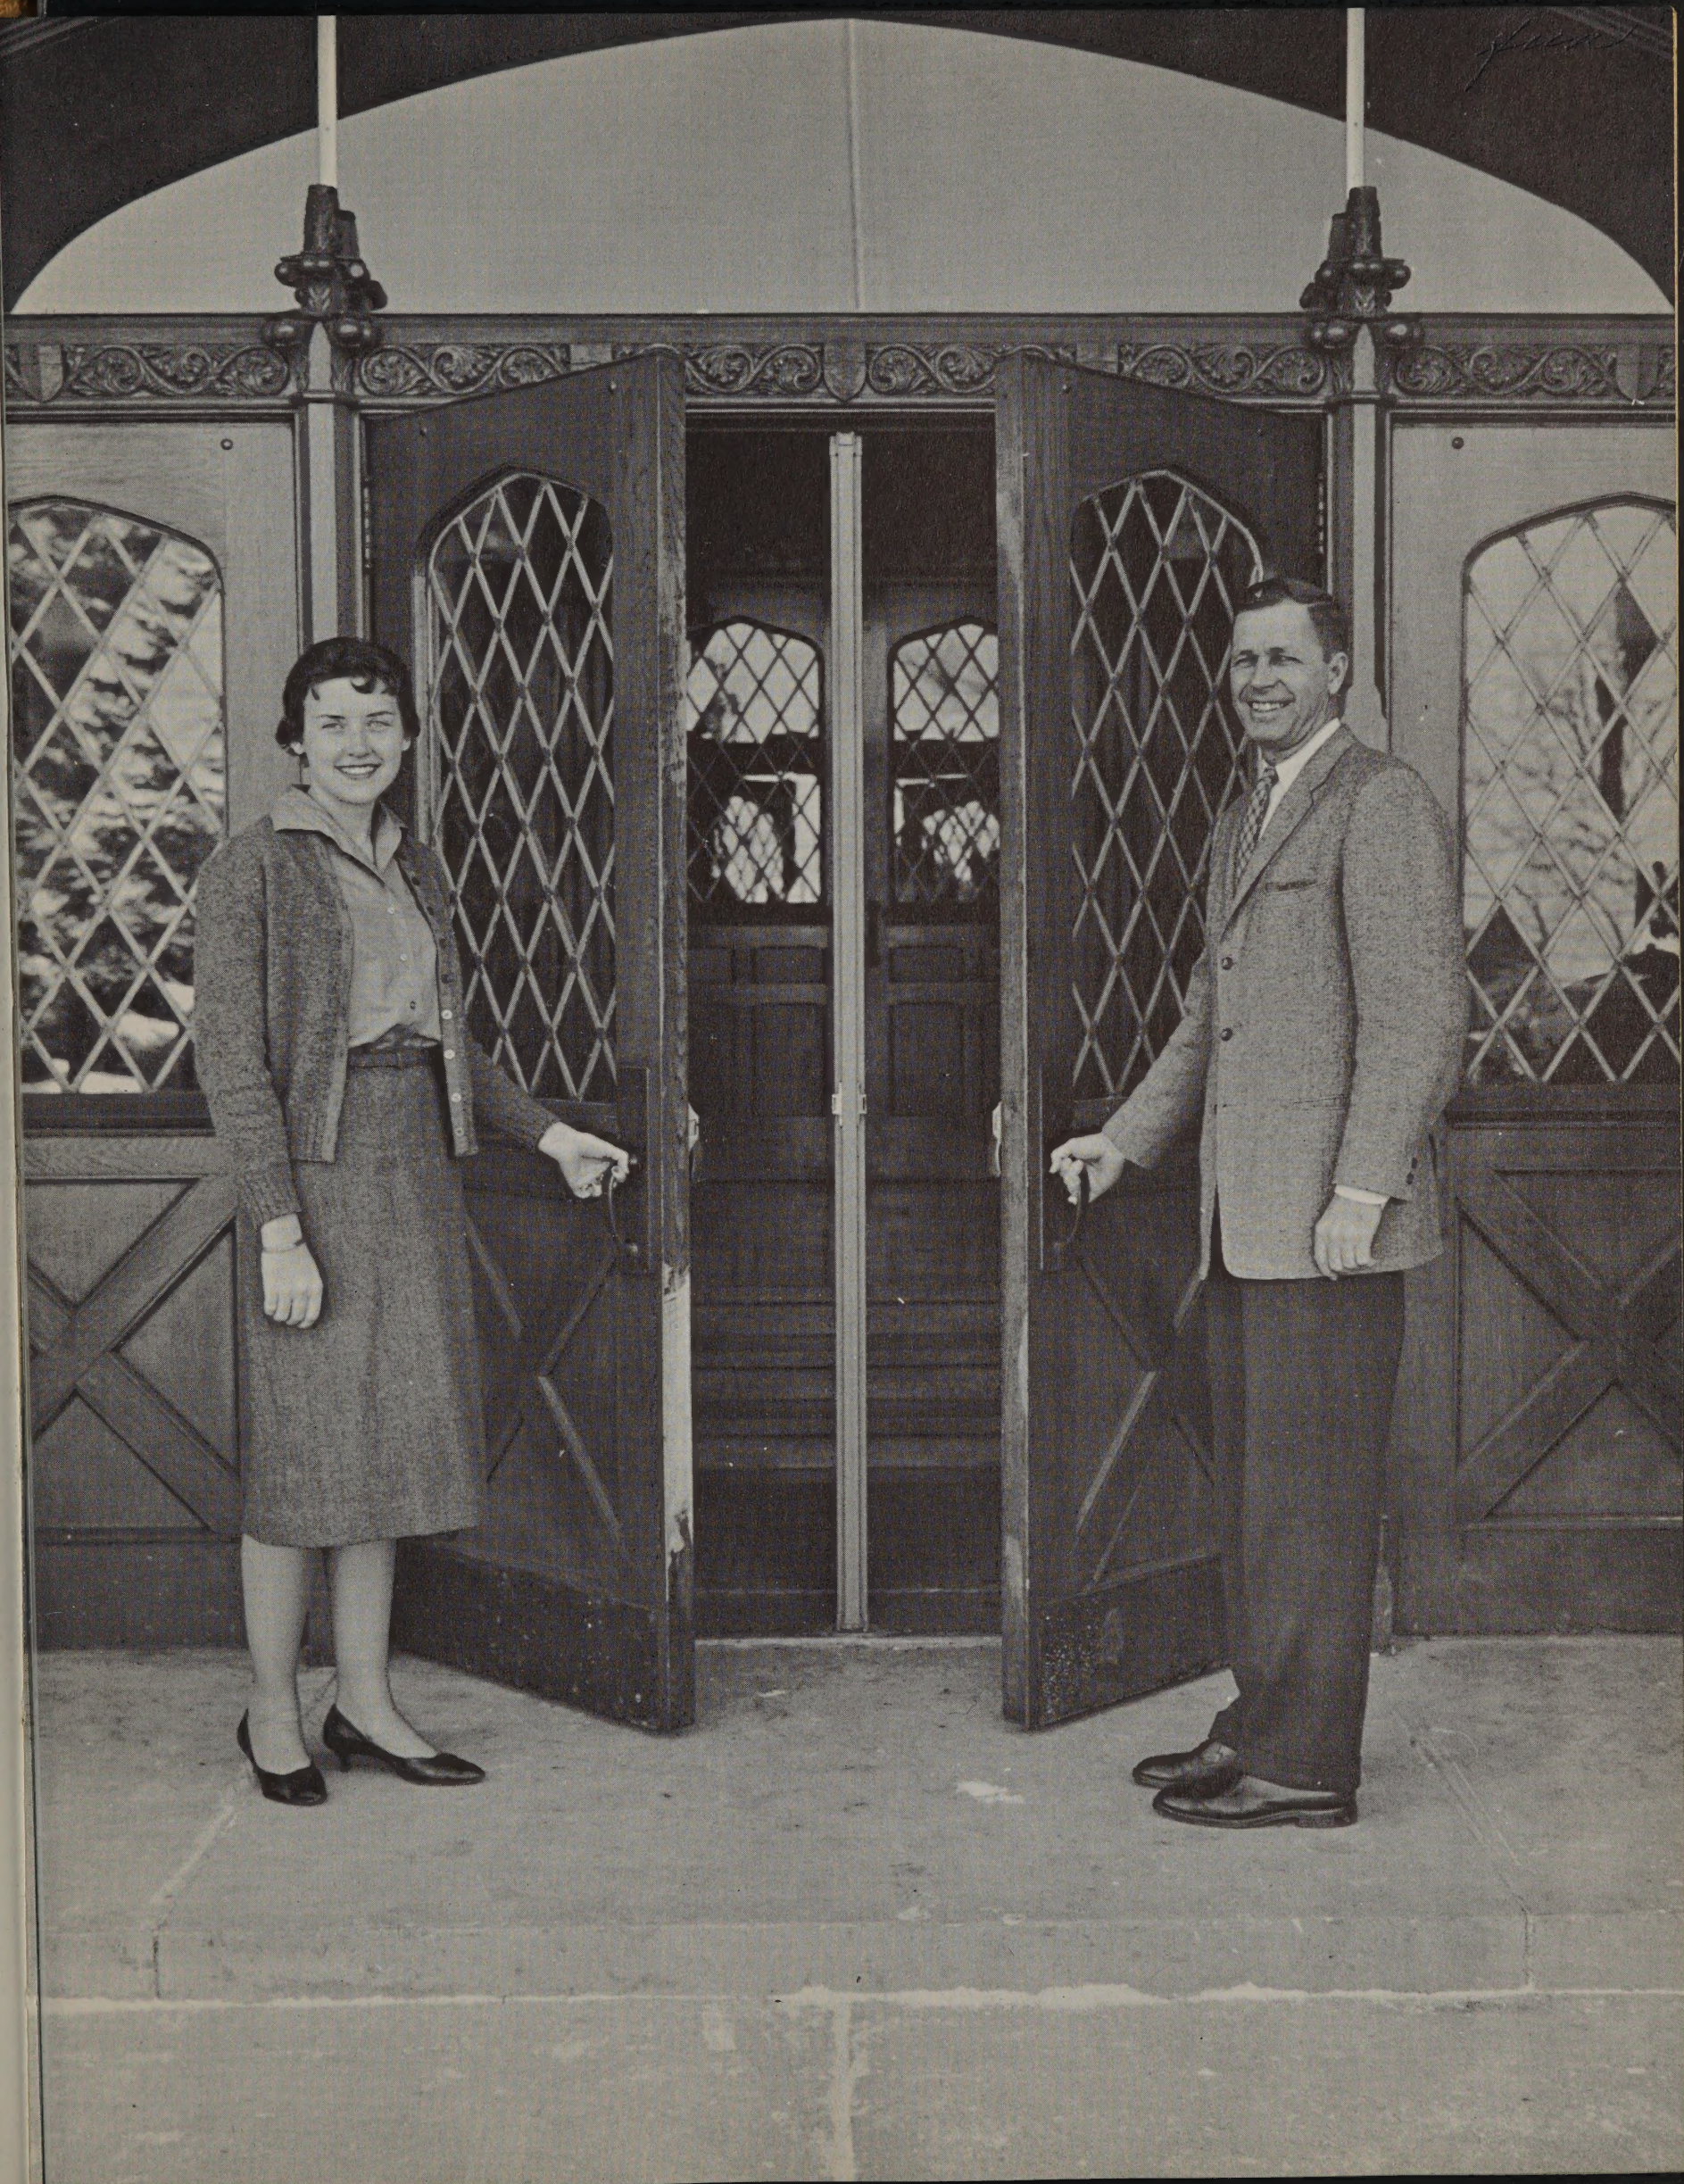

As the last door of E. C. S. closes behind us, we, the Senior Class, present to you our Embers. It is our sincere hope that within these pages you will find a permanent record of the living spirit of E. C. S.

We Honor

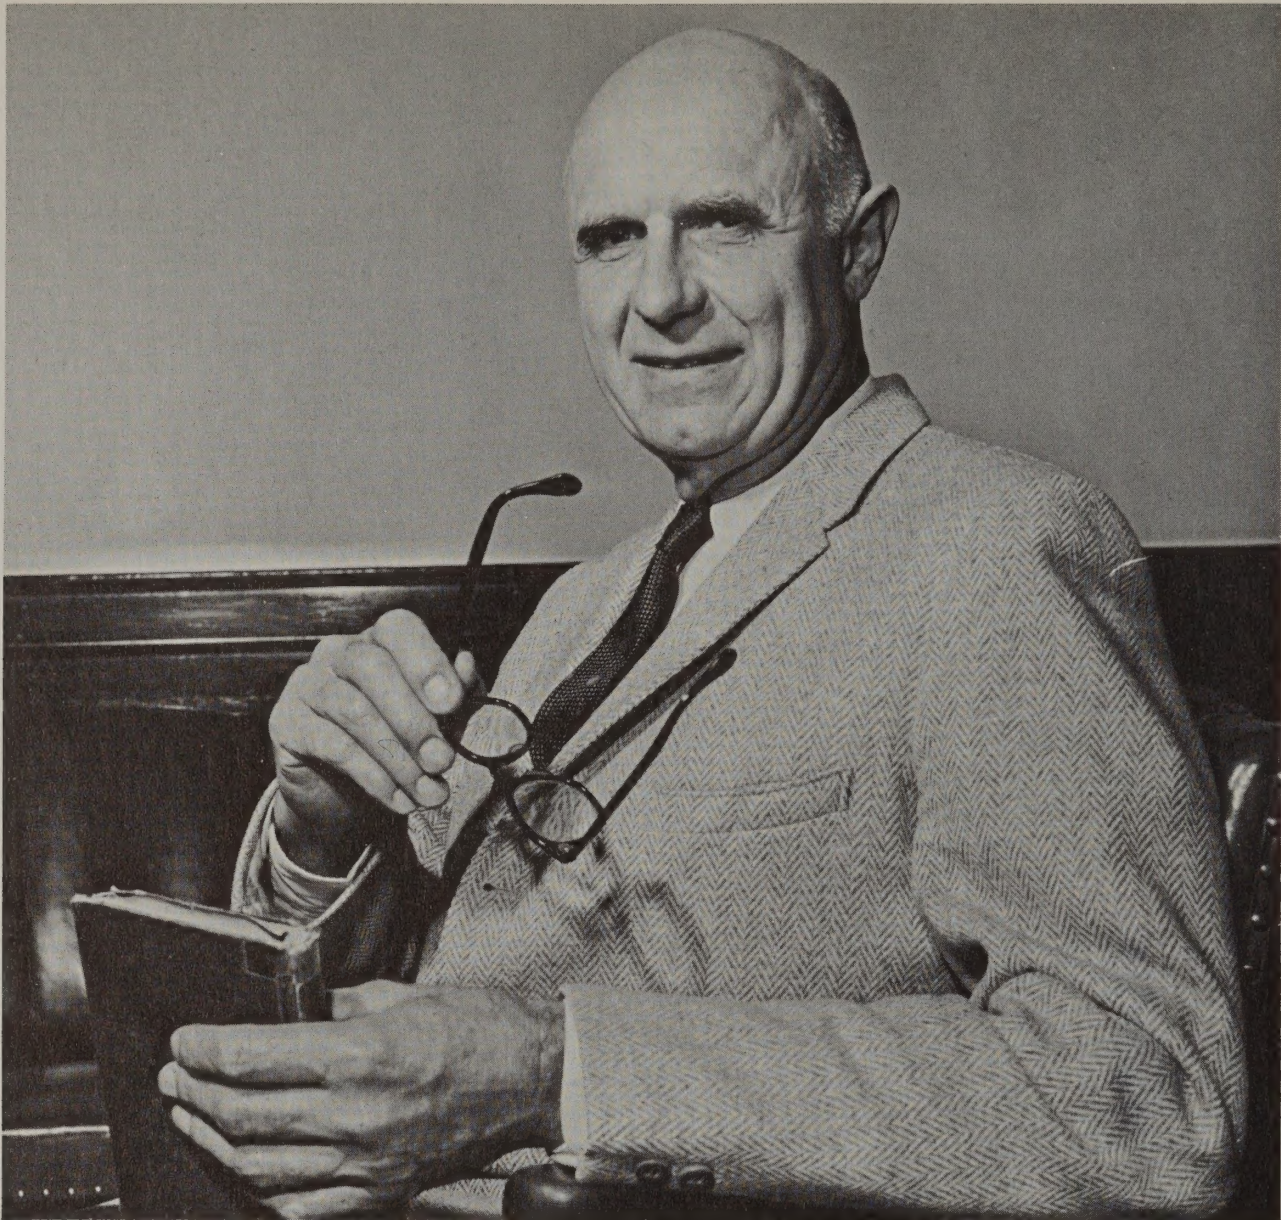

Mr. Walter Downey

He steps before us, his baton poised in anticipation, his smile encouraging those before him. All eyes rest confidently upon him as he stands keenly perceptive to the potential and significance of those before him. The baton swiftly lowers, the strains mount into a ringing crescendo. But his enthusiastic direction reaches far beyond the musical pages before him. He is directing the lives of all of us at E.C.S. It has been his fine direction, sparkling with optimism, for which we, the Class of 1961, are sincerely grateful. In the hope that he will continue to encourage future students at E.C.S. for many years, we dedicate to Mr. Walter Downey, our 1961 Embers.

Greetings Embers '61

The administration of Eden Central School takes this opportunity to bring greetings not only to the staff of the 1961 Embers, but also to the entire Senior Class.

The function of a high school yearbook is twofold: It yields experience to the members of the staff in writing, compiling, and editing a rather extensive publication. This type of experience is often used profitably in later life. The other purpose of a yearbook is to furnish a medium within which pleasant high school experiences can be recorded and referred to in later years. Your high school memories are, for the most part, pleasant ones and often can be used as an inspiration toward the accomplishment of greater achievements in the future.

The yearbook staffs at Eden Central School in the past have set a high standard in their publications. I am certain that this achievement of the Class of 1961 will be no exception.

EDWIN C. PECK
District Principal

Thomas J. Colamónico, High School Principal

The miracle of America has been fashioned within the framework of democracy. Now the democratic faith, as the very basis of our life, is challenged as never before. More of us must reflect clearly on the meaning of democracy and the reason it is worthy of loyalty and sacrifice.

I stand in the hope and prayer that our students, who will be the citizens of tomorrow, are being educated to accept this obligation of preserving our great democratic way of life. The Class of 1961 has demonstrated great potential and we look forward to a brilliant role in its contribution to the security of our great nation.

Eden P.T.A.

James F. Walsh, President

The Eden Parent-Teacher Association provides, between our parents and our teachers, a uniting force which continually strives to better Eden's educational system. Under the guidance of this program, parents become aware of the progress as well as the problems of Eden Central. Under the excellent leadership of James F. Walsh, the 1961 P.T.A. has experienced a varied and satisfying year.

Guidance

Mr. Nelson

Because of the rapid changes in social-economic conditions and the phenomenal development of higher education, students today are faced with a bewildering complexity of choice. They are more dependent, therefore, on adequate outside help. The major responsibility for this help falls on the school, and the guidance department in the school is responsible for initiating and carrying on this work.

The phrase "guidance services" represents a coordinated program of guidance designed to assist each pupil reach his personal, social, educational, and vocational objectives. Counselors, however, do not solve problems for the student, but help him decide for himself where he wants to go, what he wants to do, and how he can best accomplish his purpose. Counseling is mainly a one-to-one relationship but even though guidance be given in groups, the focus of guidance is always the individual, not the problem. Therefore, although different techniques are used, counselors as teachers are concerned with assisting each pupil gain the optimum growth and development of his personality.

WHAT IS A TEACHER?

Somewhere between the sternness of a parent, and the comradeship of a friend is that mysterious creature we call a teacher. A teacher may come in all shapes and sizes and may be male or female. But they all have one thing in common—a glorious twinkle in their eyes!

They may be found anywhere, and they're always preparing for, sitting through, participating in, or recuperating from the teaching of hard-working students.

A teacher is not only a teacher, but also—an artist designing next month's calendar, a doctor or nurse prescribing necessary treatment to a sufferer of the common slipping-of-grades diet, and above all, a spare shoulder to cry on during a time of need.

Nobody else is so early to rise and so late home at night. Nobody else has so much fun with such a large "family" of boys and girls.

Their true reward is the deep, sincere, respect of their past, present, and future students and the community. When they look around them at the skills they've taught, and the youth they've built, there is an inner voice from somewhere that says, "Well Done!"

Language

In this age of amazing and far-reaching scientific achievements, we perhaps lose sight of man's very definite need to communicate with others. Whether this is done through one's native tongue or through a language acquired in the classroom, the problem remains the same.

The gaps between countries, culture, and people must be bridged in order for the advancement of any field of learning to be of value.

This must be effected by a fuller appreciation of the language arts and a more diligent study of modern and classical languages.

Mathematics

With the recent era of space accomplishments, mathematics has gained a new importance. Eden, in keeping up with the times, has advanced its math courses.

One of the greatest improvements is the advanced course, starting in eighth grade and continuing through high school. This allows students especially gifted in mathematical ability to take one-half year of college math when a senior.

This year about 25 students are taking Math 11. This course consists of a full year of combined intermediate algebra and trigonometry. The students will then take one Regents exam at the end of the year.

Music

Music constantly surrounds us in our modern day living. Through the years it has encouraged several students to join glee clubs and ensembles. Their foundation for appreciating music was laid during their high school years in school. With unlimited opportunities almost everyone may learn to play an instrument or to develop his voice for the enjoyment of others.

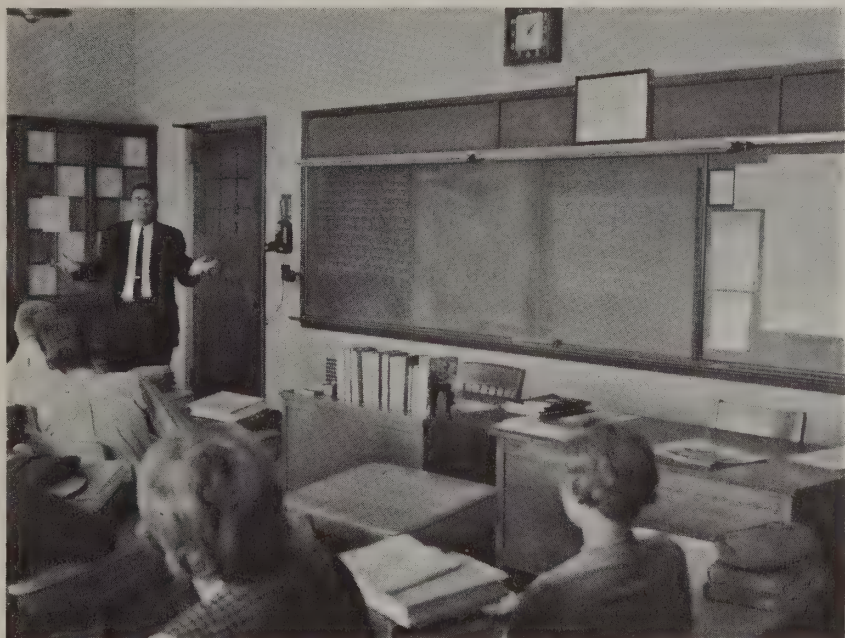

Commercial

Under the guidance of the teachers in the Commercial Department of Eden Central School, the students, through actual practice on modern office equipment, will fulfill the requirements needed to go out in the business world after graduation and seek employment in the commercial fields or further their education in this field. Speed, accuracy, neatness, and a knowledge of the basic principles of business are constantly being stressed by the teachers.

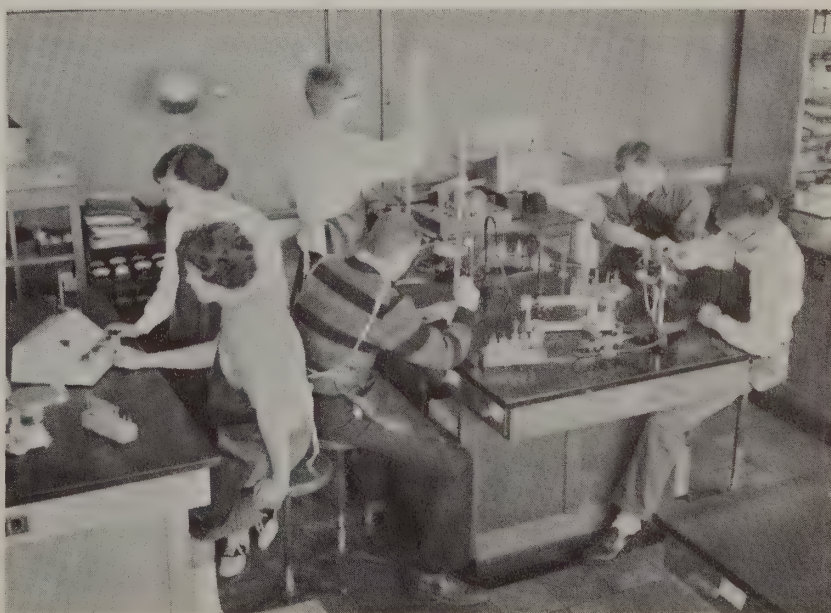

Social Studies

As the Seniors close the doors on the high school life, they can glance in retrospect at their years of education in the field of citizenship. They have progressed from the study of the home, to the community, from there to the state and national scenes, and finally to the study of the international setting. Using the social sciences such as geography, sociology, government, economics, and history, they have come to wider knowledge and deeper understanding of their responsibilities in citizenship in the field of social activity.

Science

Science influences almost every aspect of our lives, from food to furniture. For this reason it is presently being stressed in schools to better prepare us for the challenging world of inventions. Also, for students who plan and desire to procure a higher education, high school science will be their stepping stone to infinite and fascinating adventures.

Agriculture

Science is an important factor in the lives of the farmers of today. Thus, the agricultural department trains our future farmers in the proper methods of present day farming. Through clubs and activities, as the F.F.A., the students who have chosen this course as their vocation, apply the knowledge that they have gained in the classroom. Through the efforts of their teacher, they gain a good foundation to become the future farmers of America.

English

Our native language is the basis for our entire education, and the means of expressing ourselves. Each and everyone of us must be able to speak his language fluently and correctly. The English department has worked efficiently in developing this ability in the student. It has worked to instill in the student, an appreciation and enjoyment of classical and modern literature, in the hope that this appreciation will someday be an aid to self betterment.

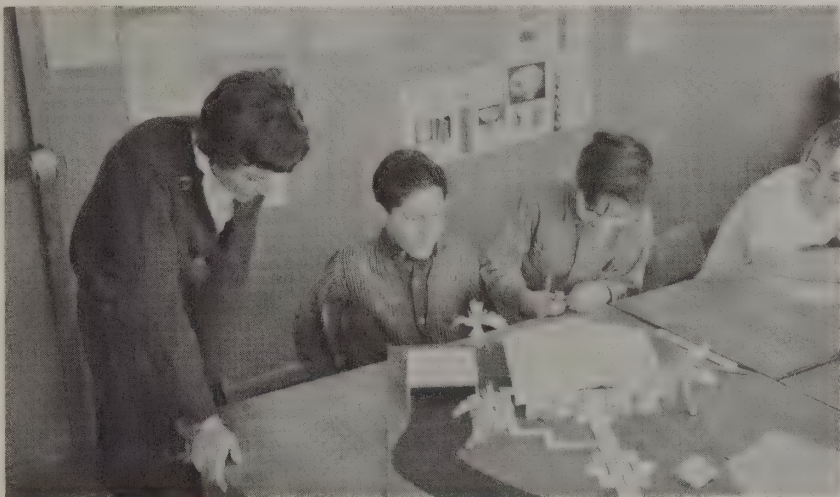

Industrial Arts

The industrial arts program of our school teaches a wide area of skills, including general shop, metal and wood-working, and photography. This course provides an excellent opportunity for students to prepare themselves for careers in our highly mechanized world of today.

Home Economics

The function of Eden's homemaking department is to adequately provide students with a well-rounded and informative knowledge of efficient home management using excellent facilities and modern equipment. Today home economic students are prepared to meet the challenge of our modern living.

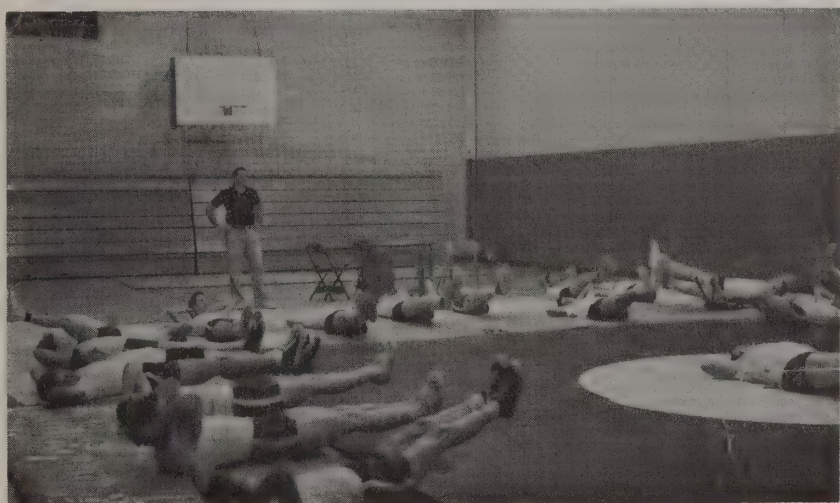

Art

The art department strives to establish in the student an appreciation of the fine arts, and a cultural foundation for everyday life. Students' abilities are allowed to progress under the eyes of the staff, and are given every opportunity to establish themselves in a particular field.

Health and Physical Education

Health and physical education are closely related. In health we learn how to maintain a strong body and to develop our bodies so we will be strong and wholesome adults. At the same time it teaches us to be good sportsmen and to understand certain fundamentals of a variety of sports. Through these two classes, health and physical education, we learn to develop healthy bodies and minds for the coming events of our adult lives.

Driver Education

In Driver Education the students learn the fundamentals of safe driving. Since the population is increasing more and more, it necessitates the need for more competent and safe drivers; and through Driver Education we know that they will carry on the good driving habits they have been taught and continue to drive carefully and intelligently.

A Football Message From Mr. Pacini:

When we opened our season in September, one of our jobs was to find suitable replacements for the men who had graduated from our 1959 squad.

After our first game with Alden, Mr. Weiss and I felt that we had to make adjustments in order to field a good team. In the Alden game, our players did not play the type of ball of which they were capable. Eden's team proved this in the following game when trounced by Sweet Home for their first loss. Our second loss was to Iroquois and luckily it was a non-division game. Once again we did not play the type of ball of which we were capable.

After the Iroquois game, Mr. Weiss and I realized that in order to have a winning season, we would have to work hard. The results of hard practice gave us a winning season and the Championship team. This could not have been accomplished without the efforts of every member of the squad and the coaching staff.

Mr. Weiss made it possible for us to have the best line in Division III. Mr. Pulvino and Mr. Gurbacki did a tremendous job in scouting our opponents.

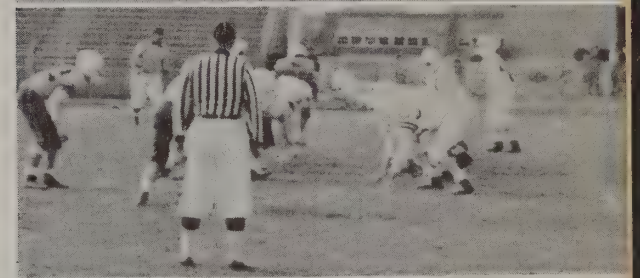

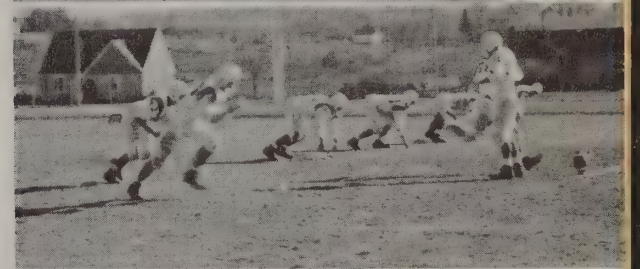

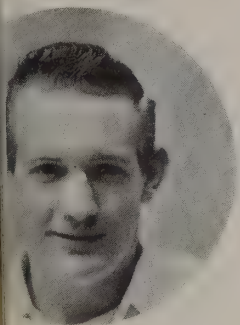

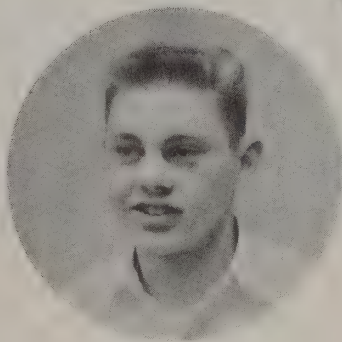

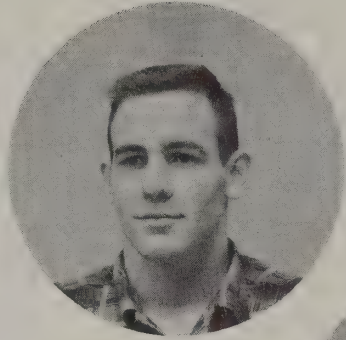

If you add these things up, a hard working team, a good assistant coaching staff, and a wonderful student body, the results produce a Championship Team.

The Eden Raiders met stiff competition this last season and ended with a won-lost record of 2-15. The team lacked sufficient experience and had to take a back seat in their try for division honors. They did, however, gain valuable basketball skills and are expected to turn the tables in next season's campaign. Co-captains Bob Ball and John Hammond, along with Al Zells and Clyde Colvin were the only seniors on Coach Schmidt's young but spirited team. They lost a great many games, but there was never a moment when the team lacked fine fighting spirit. Although the team often found themselves coming up with the lower score, they learned the value of good sportsmanship.

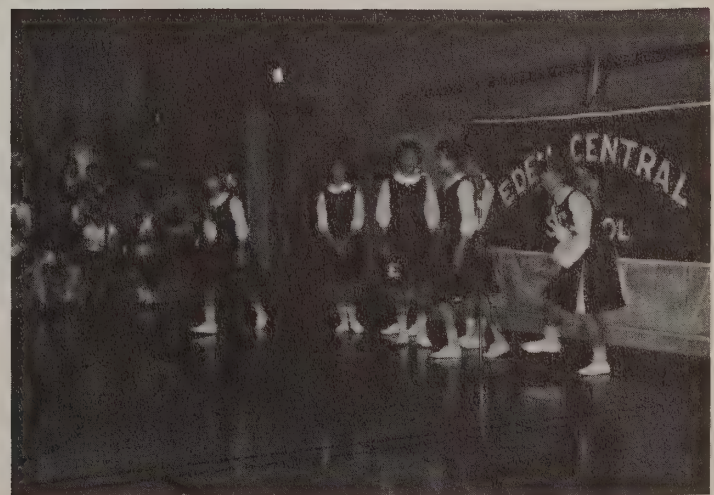

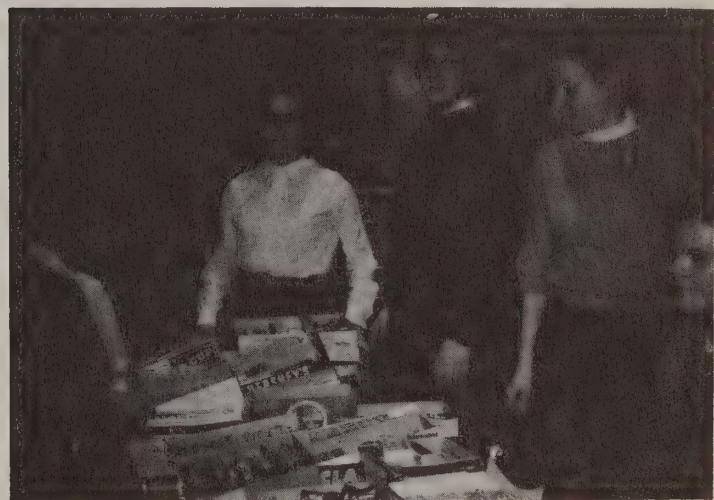

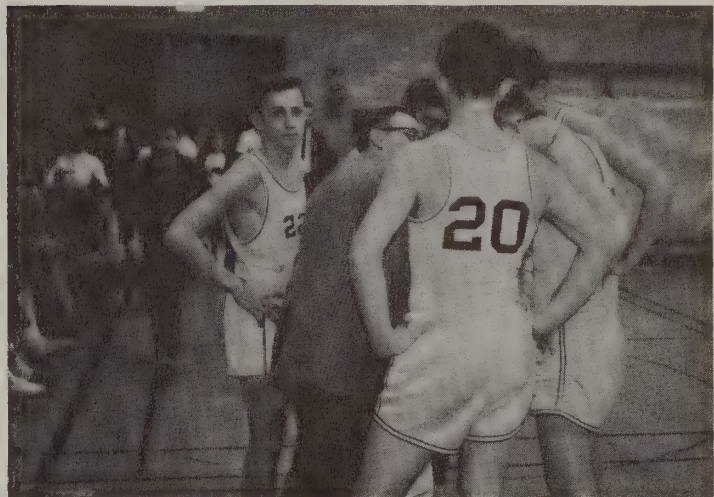

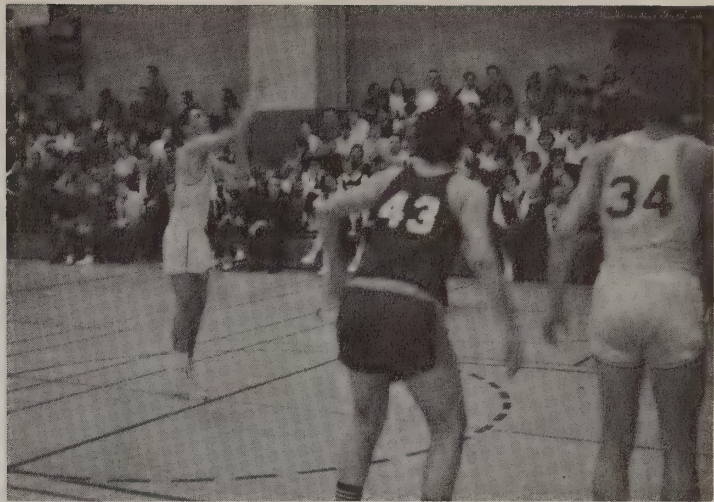

I would be

This year's team, comprised mainly of freshmen, had a difficult season as far as the won-lost column is concerned. The team lacked depth, especially in the line where six out of the possible seven positions were filled by inexperienced personnel. Mike Merak was the lone sophomore on the forward wall and was outstanding on offense and defense. Outstanding freshmen on the line were Larry Schroeder and Glen Griener. The back field had more veterans from last year's team than did the line. The individuals that were the greatest asset to the team, mainly due to their versatility, were Ray Cagwin, Daniel Graovac, and Gary Haag.

Although the record isn't very commendable, the experience gained by the entire team should be a great asset to next year's squad.

The schools played by this year's J.V. squad were:

- Alden
- Sweet Home
- Iroquois
- Lake Shore
- Cheektowaga
- Sloan
- Gowanda

This year's Junior Varsity basketball team showed their determination and enthusiasm throughout the season. Their hard fighting spirit gave them nine victories this year. These boys gained the skill and experience which will enable them to be varsity champions in the future.

The 1960 Eden Central Cross-Country team was a mixture of the old and young. Seven seniors, seven freshmen, one junior, and four sophomores made up the squad. Only seven of the runners had had any previous cross-country experience.

The raiders, who compete in Division II, dropped their opening meet to champion Iroquois 16 to 46. They then bounced back to defeat East Aurora 20 to 42 and Lake Shore 27 to 32. Lancaster then edged the Maroon and White 22 to 33. Eden won their last dual meet of the season defeating Clarence 22 to 39. This 3 won, 2 lost record placed Eden third in Division II standings.

Eden finished third in their division in the Third Annual Buffalo State Invitational Meet. The team received a trophy and Lane Ehmke was awarded a medal.

The highlight of the season came in the last meet of the season when the Raiders defeated Cheektowaga for their 6th consecutive Section VI Class A Championship.

Receiving Varsity letters were seniors James Agle, Harvey Persinger, James Potter, and Bruce Rich; sophomores William Walsh and Henry Wielkie; freshmen Charles Bailey and Lane Ehmke.

The Wrestling Team in the second year of competition, scored their first win in the history of the school by defeating Alden 34-13. The "Raiders" picked up five more wins and a tie during the season coming out with a record of 6 wins, 1 tie and 8 losses.

Their most impressive victory was the second victory over Alden when the team ran up a score of 60 to 0. This is a perfect score—very seldom seen in wrestling.

Seniors: Dean Wilson, Terry Engle, Larry Nehr-

ing, and Dave Williams, handicapped by the lack of experience, continually came through with impressive wins, establishing themselves as the "backbone" of the '60-'61 Team. Junior: Jim Overholf; Sophomores: Malcom Sykes, Jim Herdle, Dan Graovac, Ray Cagwin, Roger Haag; Freshmen: Ron Enser and Dick Heichberger, along with close contenders Paul Kaczmarczk, Dick Minekime, Tom Shepker, and Jim Skora, all plan to return next year.

The fighting nine of Eden are finally coming up to their potential. They broke the ice last season by defeating Sloan, and expect to repeat the victory again this year. Coach Pacini believes that the excellent speed and ability his team acquired last season will make a championship team. This year Coach Pacini has an experienced team led by the five seniors, James Partridge, George Bogardus, Wesley Guillaume, Robert Ball, and James Quasny. We anticipate a fine spirited and victorious baseball team this spring.

Letter from the White House to National Association of Student Councils upon the commencement of their national convention.

National Association of Student Councils

Our American traditions of democracy must be continually revitalized through constructive and purposeful action on the part of all our citizens. By encouraging boys and girls to take an active part in the conduct of their schools, the student councils are preparing them for their mature roles in the life of the national community.

Court

Each day there are hundreds of students traveling through Eden's halls. This traffic needs regulation just as motor vehicles do; consequently, the monitors hold a very important position. Offenders of the laws regarding behavior in the halls are brought to trial before a jury and are tried. The monitors and the court are both regulated by the Student Council.

Chorus Activities

The year 1960-61 has been an extremely busy and fruitful one for the two high school choruses. In the spring of 1960 the Buffalo Symphonette gave a concert at Eden Central School. The mixed chorus joined with the Symphonette and presented several numbers. The experience of singing with a professional group provided inspiration for further intensive work on the part of the choral ensemble. During the month of May both choral groups journeyed to Fredonia and competed in the music contests. In November the choruses combined efforts with the drama department and presented the operetta "Mississippi Melody." Each member of both choruses had an active part in the production, and many of the cast members were chosen from the choral groups. The following March the choruses joined with the Senior Band and presented the annual spring concert. The groups sang separately and also sang several numbers with the band accompanying them. The first week-end in May brought the State Music Festival to Eden and members of both choral groups volunteered their services. They became room chairmen, stage chairmen, ushers, pages and all-round helpers to both the judges and the music educators who came to Eden to judge and to be judged. Both the girls' chorus and the mixed chorus, plus several vocal soloists, performed at this local contest.
